We are consumed with interest to note that the American is finding out for its readers whether or not the Bible teaches the doctrine of reincarnation.

Well may Willie Randolph rise to ask, editorially: "What is home without a Hearst paper?" What indeed?

Lots of people, who were proud that they got paid by the year, are just getting wise that they'll lose a day's pay this year.

Stork picked on Minneapolis last night to make a record. Visited Mrs. Josephine Harris while she was telephoning her husband. Both doing nicely, thank you. Also the telephone, if it's a tick tick.

The Brumbein family of Rochester, N. Y., is pretty well scattered today. Raymond left to occupy a cell in Auburn prison for two years for grand larceny; August is in Elmira on a burglary charge; Louis went to spend six months in the penitentiary and Charles, his younger brother, accompanied him to serve thirty days. The cat and dog are at home.
